

Rabindranath Tagore Bust Garlanding Ceremony

MACQUARIE
UNIVERSITY

Monday 12 December 2011

Vice-Chancellor Professor Steven Schwartz and the Executive Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Professor John Simons, invite you to a special garlanding ceremony for the newly installed bust of Rabindranath Tagore.

Monday 12 December 2011

11am - 12.30pm

Building W6A, Outdoor Courtyard

Macquarie University, NSW, 2109

Rabindranath Tagore (1861 - 1941) was a Bengali polymath who reshaped his region's literature and music. The first non-European Nobel laureate, Tagore transformed Bengali art and penned the national anthems of India and Bangladesh. Macquarie University is honoured to receive this bust as a gift from the Indian Council for Cultural Relations to honour the legacy of Tagore.

RSVP: Monday 5 December 2011

Andrew Ramsay

P: (02) 9850 4275 E: andrew.ramsay@mq.edu.au

Complimentary parking will be available in W4 and X3 car parks pending the display of the event's parking permit.

This permit will be emailed to you upon confirmation of attendance via phone or email

MACQUARIE
UNIVERSITY